

Please keep the current NO Call list law in effect. I have no desire to be bothered every evening by relentless telemarketers who don't take no for an answer. I have never purchased or ordered anything from a telemarketer nor do I ever plan to. If I want to order something by phone, I will initiate the inquiry. The current proposal to allow companies to keep calling for up to 18 months is not acceptable either.